CHEVROLET DEMONSTRATION WAS HELD AT STRATHMORE

A. B. McDONALD DIED IN CALGARY

AERO CLUB HOLDS FIRST LECTURE

REGULAR MEETING OF THE STRATHMORE COUNCIL

A large crowd gathered in the Memorial Hall last Friday evening to attend the chaste demonstration of the Chevrolet, under the auspices of White & Son.

Nela White welcomed the audience and introduced Mr. Harry Wilmont, General Motors manager for Southern Alberta, and Mr. A. C. Beach, factory demonstrator.

Mr. Wilmont, in his remarks, gave his listeners a clear and comprehensive idea of the magnitude of the operations of General Motors. In Canada alone the General Motors employed five thousand, and had an annual payroll of six million dollars. In the United States they had 18,000 employees, with 3,000 dealers and sub-dealers.

Mr. Wilmont was very high in his praise of the work of White & Son in their great success of introducing the Chevrolet into this district and remarked that in view of their dealers ability and the high quality of the product, which they handled, they had every reason to believe that 1928 would be a record year for Chevrolet sales in this district.

Mr. Beach, while being a comparatively young man, proved himself to be a demonstrator of rare ability. Mr. Beach has not merely studied a few notes supplied by the company for the purpose of filling out his lecture, but he has put in over two years in the General Motors factory making a very careful study of the Chevrolet car so that in his demonstration he might do justice to the product of great engineering skill, as well as to give the Chevrolet prospects a very clear insight into the quality and mechanism of this car. Mr. Beach, with actual facts which he had brought for the purpose of demonstrating, showed the public the many improvements which had been made in this years Chevrolet, the four wheel brakes, the longer wheel base, which made more comfortable riding, the general finish and quality of the body building, and to persons mechanically inclined, gave a very expert talk on the many improvements made to the motor, which alone illustrated the dependability and power of the Chevrolet.

Following his lecture Mr. Beach entertained the gathering with moving pictures of the General Motors proving grounds, which clearly illustrated the severe tests the Chevrolet was called upon to meet before it was put before the public. Another point of interest was the study the General Motors experts made of all the different cars on the market so that they might put into the Chevrolet the best, and yet put before the automobile world a car of low price yet of highest quality. "The Bigger and Better Chevrolet".

A very excellent banquet was then served in the dining room, and the three hundred and fifty men and women declared it the best ever. Dancing followed the banquet and lasted until the early hours, when everyone departed feeling that they had had a most enjoyable and instructive evening.

White & Son are to be congratulated for their enterprise in bringing to the public feel grateful for the opportunity afforded them to obtain expert instruction on the manufacture of automobiles.

Trail Rangers Entertainment

The programme put on by the Strathmore Camp of Trail Rangers in the United Church, Strathmore, on Wednesday evening, March 28th, was well attended by both children and adults, and everyone had a good time.

Community singing, led by Miss Mary Polk, was engaged in heartily for about the minutes, after which Miss Alice Garrett sang in her usual pleasing manner. Frederick Hight, then sang "The Golden Shippers" to the great enjoyment of the audience and received a hearty encore. A comic act in three scenes, entitled "The Wasted Tip", was staged by Freddie Teare, Albert Wagstaff and George Cleave. This represented a negro porter putting the wrong man off the train, after a hard fight, and being terribly embarrassed when the man whom he should have put off woke up to find he had passed his destination.

This was followed by a number of stunts which furnished great amusement for the younger part of the audience. The Misses Garrett and Polk were heartily enjoyed when they gave an instrumental duet. Rev. R. W. Hibbert, M.A. B.D., Secretary of Religious Education for Alberta, gave a short address on Religious Education Programme which was listened to with close attention by everyone.

The main item of the programme was a mock trial "The Trial of Smike Carleson". This was conducted in three scenes, and all parts were very well taken, some being exceptionally well rendered. John Garrett took the part of judge, and both looked and acted the part. Ernest Wright represented Smike Carleson, and did his part very nicely. Mardo McDonald was clerk of court, Campbell McDonald policeman, and Roy Christensen probation officer.

Between the second and third scenes, Mr. Gatenby brought down the house with a comic song entitled "Motors", and in response to an encore, was greatly enjoyed a second time.

The boys were well pleased with the support they received, having realized almost nineteen dollars, most of which will be devoted to the work of Religious Education in Alberta.

LAWYER, NOW

MERCHANT PRINCE

William J. Nevin, Philadelphia lawyer, becomes one of the world's foremost "merchant prince" with the death of Rodman Wanamaker. Nevin leads a board of seven trustees who will conduct the great Wanamaker mercantile business in Philadelphia and New York. Nevin, 45, is the son of a Presbyterian minister. John Wanamaker employed him as a legal adviser when Nevin was 27. Later he became an immensely profitable real estate dealer for Wanamaker. After the death of John Wanamaker, Nevin became vice-president of the concern under Rodman Wanamaker.

Archie B. McDonald, aged 48 years, died in the General Hospital, Calgary, after a short illness. He was a native of Grey County, Ontario, and came to the West twenty-three years ago. He worked for several years on the construction of the C.P.R. irrigation canal, and also with the firm of Hayden & Stone, and the Campbell Construction Co., having come to Strathmore when there was only a box car for a depot.

The deceased was of a very kind and jovial disposition, and had many friends in Strathmore as well as the Laughlin, Glenchee and Quenaverton districts. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge here, and a charter member of the Forester's Lodge in Ontario. In religion he was a Presbyterian, and in politics a staunch Liberal.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his mother and several brothers and sisters in Michigan, and an Uncle and two aunts near Durham, Ontario.

Funeral and Posters, Calgary, will have charge of the arrangements.

ALBERTA STOCK WINS PRIZES AT SASKATOON FAIR

First prizes in carload lots of steers, in both heavy and light classes at the Saskatoon winter fair during the past week, were awarded to Mackenzie Bros. of Lacombe, Alberta, who had three choice entries in the show. In the class for steers weighing over 1,100 pounds each, prize went to the entry of Paul Gabriel, of Erskine, Alberta.

Pure Bred Horses For Western Canada

WINNIPEG—Approximately thirty of what is considered the finest stock of purebred heavy horses to ever reach Canada from Great Britain, Belgium and France, were unloaded at the Canadian Pacific freight yards here recently, and will be distributed throughout the Prairie provinces for breeding purposes. The animals are part of a large shipment of Clydesdales, Percherons, Belgians and Suffolks imported from Great Britain and Europe.

Several of the stallions included in the western shipment carried off high honors at the Toronto, Ottawa and

The first lecture of the Strathmore Aero Club was delivered last Thursday night by Lieut. R. B. Jackson, chief instructor of the Calgary Aero Club. The meeting was thrown open to the public, and as a result the high school room in which it was held was crowded to capacity. Half a dozen ladies were sufficiently interested to attend.

Lieut. Jackson first stressed the necessity of mastering a thorough ground school course before the actual work in flying is taken up. He pointed out that the instruction at commercial schools costs many times the charge made by Aero Clubs such as the Strathmore Aero Club.

The history of flight was briefly touched upon, and then the lecturer explained the theory of flight in a very interesting manner. Most of those attending were introduced for the first time to such aeronautical terms as: lift, drag, thrust, dihedral, angle of incidence, burble point, etc.

The executive has arranged a series of lectures, which they hope to get under way in the very near future. These lectures will be given by the members of the executive. When possible, special lecturers will be obtained. No one should fear to join the club because of the expense. The executive believes that the whole cost of twenty lectures, including books, will not be more than fifteen dollars. A special rule will be given to the younger men.

The next meeting will be announced within a few days.

On Tuesday evening Harry Strumpfton presided at the regular meeting of the Town Council. All the members were present, and the Secretary, Treasurer, T. M. Wears, read the minutes of the last regular and a special meeting, which were confirmed.

Fin Flon Mine Has Sane Policy

WINNIPEG, Man.—The Fin Flon, Manitoba's famous copper, zinc and gold deposit, will be in production by April, 1928, R. E. Phelan, vice-president in charge of operations of the controlling company.

In 1920, the Fin Flon Mines, Ltd., will have a capacity of 3000 tons a day, and the mine will give employment to between 1000 and 1200 men. Provision also is being made for the establishment of a town of about 6000 inhabitants.

There will be no speculation in the town of Fin Flon, Mr. Phelan said. The company will sell properties to purchasers on the understanding that if they wish to dispose of their holdings, the company will have first opportunity of re-buying the land at the price originally paid. In this way the price of property will be kept at an even level. Persons living in the town of Fin Flon, the northernmost city will be given the preference for opening businesses in Fin Flon, because as they had ventured into the north country as pioneers, they should now be allowed to benefit from any improvement in conditions. A railway also is to be constructed to the property and Mr. Phelan said it was planned to have the road completed early in 1929.

REV. T. R. WINTER

A communication from the Deputy Minister of Public Works at Edmonton was read, in which the Department is willing to pay one-half the expense of rebuilding the half mile of road along Bailey's Boulevard, which has been a bone of contention for many months, the town to assume the matter of upping for the future.

The matter was referred to Councilor Quirin, and he will discuss it with the Calgary office of the Department.

The mayor expressed the opinion that the cost to the taxpayers would be approximately $1500 to $1800, and strongly advocated early action, as this piece of road is very bad for business, and has been particularly adverse advertising for the Town of Strathmore.

The members as a whole endorsed the proposition, but were anxious to have more information in regard to the cost before proceeding with the work.

The sum of $10,000 requested by the School Board was ratified, and will be placed in this year's budget.

The use of lots for gardening were allocated to Messrs. White, Milson, Seales and Oliver Wright.

The Secretary was instructed to communicate with Mr. Geo. T. Berry in regard to a portion of some lots adjoining his property, which have come into the possession of the Town, and offer them to Mr. Berry for $100.00 together with the legal expenses in making a transfer.

A communication was read from the Globe Oil Co. accepting the terms of the sale of two lots on Second Street; a representative of the company will be in town in a few days to complete the transaction.

A discussion followed, in reference to an offer received from a Woodstock firm to sell a large piece of land, but it was decided not to accept the offer, it being the general opinion of the Council that quite as efficient an equipment could be made locally for a considerably smaller expenditure.

The Secretary made his usual report upon the Town funds up to March 31st.

Current accounts amounting to about ninety dollars were recommended for payment.

Mr. Wears was instructed to prepare a by-law prohibiting the driving on Second Street of tractors equipped with chains owing to the damage being done to the road.

SCHOOL COLUMN

School will be closed for the Easter holidays from Good Friday 'til Monday, April 16.

Some forty candidates from the Strathmore High school will be writing Departmental examinations in June. There will also be fifteen writing the Grade VIII examinations. These examinations will come late Monday, June 18, and last till Friday, June 29.

This means that after the Easter holidays the school will resume forty-three school days before examinations start. It is earnestly hoped therefore that all concerned will co-operate by reducing all social activities to a minimum during the next two months. This is particularly necessary in the case of pupils writing High School examinations.

SEED GRAIN SHOULD BE CAREFULLY SELECTED

Germination tests of wheat which has been threshed this spring prove that the vitality has been badly damaged. If there is a widespread planting of this spring threshed wheat disastrous results will follow. The directors of the Alberta Wheat Pool are greatly concerned over this menace, and urge farmers to have their seed tested for germination.

SPORT NOTES

YANKEES AND PIRATES ARE THE FAVORITES

The New York Yankees and the Pittsburgh Pirates are going to enter the 1928 pennant race as favorites to repeat their successes of 1927.

What interests the live baseball fan, therefore, is the possibility of one or more clubs upsetting the dope and beating out last season's winners.

If any American League club can head off the Yankees who are the Philadelphia Athletics, while in the National League the St. Louis Cardinals figure to make the most trouble for the Pirates.

Pittsburgh will be stronger this season than last, having added strength where strength most was needed—at second base and in the pitching box. If "Sparsity" Adams and some of Donte Bach's new pitchers live up to expectations, the Cardinals may still be runners up when the season ends.

Fancied to Repeat

The Yankees have added an appreciable strength, their pitchers are no better and a year older and Miller Huggins' club should not be expected to set a new mark for games won this season.

But the world's champions are no much stronger on the attack than any of the other contenders, but they inevitably are favored to repeat.

The Philadelphia Athletics, with Ty Cobb and Tris Speaker in the infield, and a stronger pitching staff than New York, may get past the Yankees and win the pennant. If they can do so, it will be a popular victory.

Connie Mack has a world of baseball brains at his disposal, possibly too much. He has Eddie Collins as team captain, Ira Thomas and Kid Gleason as coaches, and a seasoned catching staff consisting of Cochran, Fox and Pop Collins. This means grey matter inside as well as on top of the head.

The Athletics outfield will rival that of the Yankees. Cobb and Speaker both can be counted upon to hit over .300, while they are hitting, and if they beat tall them, where there are were outfields in baseball than any you could make with Al Simmons, Walter French and Bins Miller.

The infield will be strong on defense, with Joe Hauser at first; Collins and Max Bishop for second; Joe Boley or Joe Hessler, the Arkansas rookie, at shortstop; and either Sammy Hale or Jimmy Dykes at third.

It is upon the pitching staff, however, that Mack must rely if he is to win his first pennant since 1914. The Athletics will have three good southpaws, Lefty Grove, Rube Walberg, and Oshie Gravel, obtained from Milwaukee. The starboard fingers are Romel, Elmer, Quinn, the Powers, Bill Shown and old Joe Bush.

There is pennant material here, if Mack can knit it together properly.

CHAMPION SINGLE SCULLER GOES TO ENGLAND JUNE 9

TORONTO—Joe Wright, Jr., champion sculler, and Jack Guest, who will be the partner in the doubles event in the Olympic sports, will leave Canada for England on June 9. Both will compete in the diamond sculls in the famous English Henley, in which event Wright was finalist last year. The man making the better showing in the English regatta will represent Canada in the Olympic singles, only one entry from each country being accepted.

IRELAND DEFEATED MILLIGAN ENOUGH

—were witnessed here in Waverley Market when Alex. Ireland won the European halfweight boxing championship from Tommy Milligan, the titleholder Milligan fought in the ninth round and was disqualified. He was well ahead on points when the bout was ended.

A queue a mile long formed outside Waverley Market hours previous to the start of the bout, and the doors were closed an hour before it began, when 20,000 people were crowded inside. It is believed to be the only occasion when two Scots boxed for a European title.

Milligan was shaken in the first round by a right to the jaw, but there, after steadily outpointed Ireland, was the upper cuts with telling effect. Milligan was cautioned in the first round for holding, and when he forced Ireland with a body blow in the fifth round he was told that there was an outburst of booing and cries of "four". In the subsequent round, the referee ordered Milligan for hitting low, while the titleholder was steadily outboxing his opponent.

Ireland collapsed in agony when the that blow was struck and had to be carried from the ring. Milligan stood bewildered in his corner as the challenger was awarded the title.

WOULD LIKE TO

K. O. DEMPSEY

NEW YORK—Gene Tunney, it was learned from one of his best of friends, really was waging a few of the million dollars he acquired last year that Jack Dempsey will not care to meet him, even if the former champion does decide that a health would be safe if he returned to the ring.

Tunney, according to this intimate friend, has a hunch that Dempsey will be tempted by a purse which Richard says may offer him to stay in the fight game. Tunney knows what the lure of the big money is and he thinks that Dempsey may accept some match, even if he does not need the ring.

He's Celebrating

Learning that the heavyweight champion was risking even a minute part of his fortune on the opinion that Dempsey would not fight him again, it might sound as if Tunney were spending celebration money because the toughest and hardest man in the class of contenders had been removed from the list.

Regardless of all the talk about his bad eye, his weak leg and his lost punch, the hunch about Tunney's part of the Delancey, the Kikos, the Paulinos, the Sharkeys and the Heeneys hanging around Richard's office, Dempsey still is the best of the best, and the hardest for Tunney. Friends of the champion insist that Tunney will find Dempsey easier than a stranger and that Dempsey no matter how many times he might fight Tunney again, would never find that jaw for a punch hard enough to put Tunney down.

Tunney's willingness to risk money that Dempsey will not fight him again is based upon more than a mere desire to win a bet or to convince the public that he knows something about business.

Tunney wants to fight Dempsey again, according to his friends, and his bet-making partners and his conversational willingness to predict to any listener that Dempsey is afraid of him may be a part of propaganda.

K. O. WANTS TO MEET

The champion is particularly eager to get another crack at Dempsey because he feels certain that he would knock out the former champion, thus showing up some of those old boys who have been taking him lightly because he won the title on points and retained it on a long coast.

Tunney, if you are willing to listen, will give you a splendid time of listening, proof of his conviction that he would have knocked out Dempsey if the fight in Philadelphia and Chicago had been scheduled for fifteen rounds.

He insists that Dempsey couldn't have gone another round. Dempsey admitted that he was winded at the end of the tenth round and had to be helped over the ring by Gene Monroe to shake hands with the champion.

BAR ACE STABLE HORSES LEAVE SOON FOR CALGARY

The Bar Ace Stable, owned by W. H. and Bob Hanney, and trained by Clint Hastings, will train at Calgary for the summer campaign over the western tracks. This stable includes some old favorites with local racers in Rembrandt, Lierre, Golden Red, Frank Sumner, Rainbow H. and Frank Al. Hastings also has a western Canada two-year-old named Just Cost. Also included, the latter being by the noted Monticello horse, High Cost.

Hastings also trains Dan, McDonnell's good handicap horse, Rochester H., who will be remembered as the outstanding performer over Western tracks last fall. These horses have all wintered well, and give promise of being as good as any other in the stable, which also has a very capable rider in Joe Manis.

FEW BASEBALL PICK-UPS

The Washington Senators will present something of a collegiate aspect when they open the 1928 season. There are at least 12 foreign college boys on the squad at present, three of them coming from the University of Alabama, the institution that has given more players than any other to the majors. Gilia, Hayes and Barnes, the first two named infielders and the last named pitcher, are Alabama products; Reeves, shortstop, is a Georgia Tech alumnus; Shirley, infielder, is from the University of North Caro-

GOOD USED CARS

Slater is a former University of Michigan star. Infield catcher, graduated from Washington University; Hadley, a new pitcher, spent a year at Brown University; Hopkins, pitcher, comes from Colgate; Lisenberry, pitcher, from Southwestern University; Wells and Zachary, both pitchers, represent Bethany College and Guilford College, respectively.

Why the Athletics traded Samuel Gray to the St. Louis Browns for an outfielder, Edmund Meyer, was more or less of a puzzle to many fans. Gray was of little use to the Athletics. It is true, but it seems as though any pitcher except an outfielder was what the Athletics needed. They already had Cobb, Simmons, French, Lebrun, Gray, Now with Speaker, Cobb, Simmons, French and Miller, the Athletics will have one of the strongest if not the strongest outfield in the majors from the standpoint of both regulars and reserves.

Speaking of outfields, the Chicago White Sox will be well represented among the major's best with Mostil back in center field. The two who will team up with him are Mettel and Falk, the latter a University of Texas product. Carl N. Reynolds, former track, basketball and baseball star at the Southwestern University, is also seeking a position in the outfield and should win a substitute place at least.

The Philadelphia Athletics with Hauser as first, and a new pitcher, in the person of Joseph Hessler from Watertown at shortstop. Speaker in the outfield and another star baseman, O. C. Greuell, leading pitcher and hitter of Milwaukee, last year, are apparently ready to open the season. The Athletics will, without a shadow of a doubt, furnish plenty of opposition for every team in the American League this year.

Because the New York Yankees finished so far ahead of the other American League clubs in 1927, it is to be expected that the general consensus of opinion is that they cannot be halted in 1928. It must be taken into consideration, however, that practically all of the other clubs, excepting New York, will enter the 1928 race stronger than in 1927. The only way in which the Yankees can expect to be improved is with more experience on their side than any other club. Thomas and Moore should be more useful this season than last. But the Athletics and the Senators should give the Yankees some real competition.

The Philadelphia Athletics will enter the 1928 race with more experience on their side than any other club. With Cobb and Speaker in the outfield, J. J. Quinn for the pitcher's box, Connie Mack for manager, and E. T. Collins and William Gleason as coaches, a wealth of baseball experience is available. If the Athletics do not finish in the first place or a close runner-up position in 1928, then there will be a great many surprised fans in baseball.

TRAINING CAMP DOPE

NEW YORK—The baseball dope is being waited pretty hardward already has offered answers to many of the momentous questions that accompanied the major league season of the South.

It may therefore be set down with a fair degree of impunity that—

1. George Slater has beaten out Joe Judge in the contest for first base with the Washington Senators, chiefly by exhibiting a better hitting comeback.
2. Kiki Cuyler, batting in his chosen position, third, looks ready for a big season with the Chicago Cubs.
3. Joe Hauser has completely recovered from the effects of his broken leg, staped a comeback and plugged the first base gap for the Athletics.
4. Connie Mack's pitching staff will be in much better shape for the start of the season than it was a year ago.
5. The Boston Braves, pepped up by the addition of Hornsby, will be extremely troublesome, if not an actual power in the East.
6. Sparty Adams is fast filling the secondbase hole for the champion Pirates.
7. Bill Cissell, White Sox infield recruit, hasn't yet measured up to his $125,000 price tag.
8. The Red Sox and Phillies, to judge from early exhibitions, will be the foremost contenders for cellar positions again.

DALEMEAD

The Ed. Nelson family from Carleton Place, Ontario, who have just moved to the E. McMillan farm, which they bought. Welcome to the community.

The St. John's Church, Calgary, was the scene of a quiet wedding on Tuesday afternoon, March 20, when Ernest V. Woolrich, of Calgary, Alberta, and Mabel Louise Kautz, of Dalemead, were united in marriage. Rev. Gale officiating. The bridemaids were Miss Lillian and Miss Hazel Kautz, of Dalemead. The groom was supported by Mr. Henry Kautz, also of Dalemead. The bride was charming in a pale peach gown, with hat to match, and she carried a large bouquet of carnations. The bridemaids were both dressed in pink and wore bouquets of sweet peas and carnations. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the "Blue Room" where many guests assembled. The table was attractively arranged, the center of interest being a large wedding cake of three tiers, beautifully decorated. After spending a few days with relatives and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Woolrich will leave for their farm at Aldersleigh. The community wishes the newlyweds luck and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Paulson moved into the home recently vacated by Mr. Stewart. Mr. Paulson will take up road work in the community.

The L. Nelson family who moved to Casper, Wyoming, a year ago, motivated back to Dalemead recently, and expect to make their home here.

I Saw Last Week

A REAL SIGN OF SPRING, Ed. Linke has arrived, he left with the coming of the snow birds, and is back before the robins. A. C. KING showing the value of having registration papers for eligible stock; the missing documents mean real money. WEBER a very busy man working out the difference in percentages between a forty per cent and a sixty per cent and a thirty valuation upon improved property, and extending anything but his blessing upon the legislators responsible for the Act. JIM WEIR telling people that Walter Hagen Dunn may be able to induce D. M. Laidlaw to do some work for the Elks, but he figured if he can get him to do a hands turn at the tennis courts but talk, and I can't spare the time, said Jim, as I am a busy man in the evenings. ARCHIE GRAY enjoying a very nice recently automobile drive on Thursday evening. JIM WEIR warning D. A. Perry that JIM Prince wished to interview ARCHIE GRAY. THE BIG STRATHMORE POOL on the Grand National being split with the winners: Ted McConnell 1st, Charlie Keeling 2nd, and Joan Kinnear 3rd. D. A. MAYOR SHIRMPTON busily engaged studying the budget and the new assessment which Amos or Wears has prepared under orders from the Brownlee Government. LOUIS OXBROOK carefully watching the grain quotations, waiting for the right price to sell his wheat crop. Never mind, said Charlie, as he treated away to get another load of dusky diamonds, it won't be long until the Chinook meet, when he hopes "old Tugs" will again be on the job. "NELS" WHITE looking delighted as his guests on Friday did full justice to the nice eats after the big Chassis Demonstration. HIRSH HARRY WILMOT wishes he could be located in Strathmore all the time and be Nels White's permanent guest.

WATCH US GROW

EDMONTON—Alberta's census figures took a big bounce up this week when Fred Goucher, farmer from the Bruxelles district of Manitoba, landed here with Madame Goucher and twelve other Gouchers, ranging in ages from 24 to 4½ years. The family, who are pioneer farmers from the Bruxelles district, will take up six homesteads in the Dalmead district, and will start work on the land this spring. Every member of the family has had practical farm experience, and Fred Goucher, the father, is one of the best known farmers in Manitoba.

Madame Goucher is a sister of Alex Bonneau of the Edmonton Exhibition association, and it is largely through the influence of Mr. Bonneau that this high class family of new settlers was induced to come to Alberta.

The boys also took back two car loads of cattle, household effects, etc. Welcome home.

The Social Club gave a Novelty Dance on March 30th. Splendid music was rendered by the Dalemead Orchestra.

CELEBRATE

The Alberta Pool has started construction of an elevator at this point. Voss Bros. have the contract.

Mr. Archie McDonald, who has visited in the district at St. Boniface's, passed away in Calgary Saturday morning last. Mr. McDonald was well known all over the country, having worked for the C.P.R. on construction in the Irrigation Block.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig were in Calgary Saturday attending the funeral of S. V. Taylor.

The farmers are all busy getting seed ready for spring, and will be on the land just as soon as it is ready.

The Cheadle school board has placed some new playground equipment on the school grounds for the children—a new slide, ocean wave and teeter boards.

C. W. Barber, O. Edwards, R. Wade, H. Baldwin, Geo. Bond, Ray Miller, very Calgary visitors during the week.

WINSTON LACKS HONOR IN OWN COUNTRY ONLY

When Lord Beaverbrook was plain Max Aiken, doing work around Calgary, he liked fine cigars. He couldn't always afford the best in those days but his cigar was almost as often seen as Premier Baldwin's famous briar. Evidently the tastes of the publisher of The Daily Express have not changed, for this story comes from England. Lord Beaverbrook and Winston Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, arrived at a small station in Essex almost at the same moment, both hurrying for London. Their train was just pulling out. They had no time to select a coach but just jumped into the first one in front of an indignant guard. It happened to be a third class carriage and contained one other passenger—a lean lad from Lancashire. Beaverbrook produced cigars and asked the man who pulls Britain's financial strings were puffing the third passenger sniffed contentedly. "Pretty good cigars they're smoking, lad," said the man from the North. "Aye, lad, them's good uns."

Amused at this the publisher answered, "Will you have one?" The lad from the cotton mills didn't mind if he did and a good time was had by all. A few stations further on, with the cigars still ablaze Beaverbrook decided to leave the train. He left Churchill to carry on with their new found companion. After he left the train the Lancashire lad, "Let's open window, lad. 'Tis warm in here," and then, "Nice gent, that, fine gent was that one."

"Yes," said Churchill. "Do you know who that was?" "Oo? 'Im with the cigars. No!" "Lord Beaverbrook," was the reply. "You don't say. Just fancy him being as nice to a couple of blokes like us."

LEST WE FORGET

Editor, Strathmore Standard, Strathmore, Alberta.

Dear Sir:

Spring is approaching, and after a long dreary winter, we feel ready to turn over the soil and prepare for a banner year, but don't forget that the Presidential Soil Thistle is still amongst us, and with other noxious weeds ready to set back and lower the yield of that good seed you have made up your minds to sow this year.

The Good Seed Campaign did good work, the farmer is going to do like wise, but the noxious weeds are on ground and ready for business. Don't let the Soil Thistle appear above ground. Patches that are known keep turned black (straw, brush, etc.) especially at this time when the ground is too hard to cultivate. Use of waste oil from car or tractor, soak surface after burning. DO IT NOW. Join forces in fighting these noxious weeds by checking at once. Sow clean seed on clear ground.

This is not an official letter, but for general welfare of all farmers to encourage the hard fight against a common enemy.

PULLMAN PORTERS VOTING ON STRIKE IN UNITED STATES

NEW YORK—A strike vote has been started among the 7,000 members of the Brotherhood of Pullman Porters. Ten thousand ballots were sent out to all parts of the country.

Under the Watson-Parker act, President Coolidge will name an arbitration board to raise the porters vote to strike.

The union demands a wage increase from $12.50 a month to $15.00, and a reduction in monthly working hours from 400 to 240. The wage increase would be in lieu of tips, which the company is asked to abolish. The strike vote is the first ever taken by an organization composed exclusively of negroes.

"Last night, madam," said the tourist at the ancient rural hostelry, "you informed me that the Duke of Wellington once stayed in this hotel. Is it a fact?"

"It is, sir," beamed the landlady. "He slept in the very room you had last night."

"Was it just the same as it is now?"

"The very identical bed."

"And the Duke of Wellington slept in it—he actually slept in it?"

"Aunt, that what I'm telling you! He actually slept in the very bed you had last night!"

Avoid Needless Dissipation of Funds

Carefully compiled statistics throughout the country reveal an outstanding percentage of estates left to beneficiaries in the form of cash or life insurance, which are quickly dissipated through ill-advised investments made upon the suggestion of the inexperienced.

The Trusts and Guarantee Company, Limited, offers an investment and property management service that makes such dissipation absolutely unnecessary.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY

THE PROVINCIAL DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH

The following statement shows reasons for increase as between capital expenditure of 1924 and estimates of 1925-26 in the Provincial Department of Public Health, (figures and capital included in both sets of figures).

The statement recently published in the Edmonton Journal is to the effect that the increase in expenditure in the Department of Health was $165,465 since 1924—whereas the actual fact as hereinafter shown is that the increase has been only $14,646. Of this $14,646 is for entirely new services and that the expansion of existing services in 1924 is only $13,456.

The details of this expenditure is as follows:

Actual expenditure 1924	$ 876,295
Estimates 1925-26	1,284,568
Increase	$ 408,263
or 46.58%

Of this amount of increase, however, the difference between cash and gross salaries, which of course increases the revenue, accounts for $104,711, or 13.46%—so that the real increase in the estimates before the House for 1925-26 over 1924 actual expenditure is $303,552 or 34.64% and not 46% as stated in the Edmonton Journal. This 21.64% of increase is made up of:

New Services	16,305%
Expansion of Existing Services	13,456%
Total of	34,645%

(as hereinbefore stated)

The difference between Cash and Gross Salaries is explained as follows: Previously, employees at the Provincial Asylums and similar institutions were paid part of their salaries in cash and allowed to take out of the balance in perquisites such as articles of food from the stores which were debited to them up to the amount of their salaries. Under the new system which has since been instituted, these employees are paid the full amount of their salaries in cash and if they wish to secure this material, they must pay for it in cash out of their salary, the payment being credited to the income of the province.

A list of the new services is as follows:

Provincial Special Hospital	$61,404
University Hospital Grant	20,000
Chiropractic Act	500
Provincial Clinic	24,524
Proportion of Expense of Min- ister's Office	4,556
Central Alberta Sanatorium	28,616
	$142,588

Expansion of Existing Services:

General Office	$ 3,425
Public Health Grants	53,872
Public Health Laboratory	12,200
Public Health Nursing Branch	4,439
Vital Statistics	2,011
Grants to Organizations	250
(Provincial Medical Institute (Provincial Mental Hospital)	58,796
Postage	850
Charitable purposes, Care of Incurables	3,558
Charitable purposes, Care of Incurables (actual acct.)	20,917
	$169,933

Decrease:

Hospital Branch	$1,973
Social Hygiene	5,338
	$9,311

Total Increase of $169,672, or 18.46%

THE SAYINGS AND DOINGS OF MANY PUBLIC MEN

Placing the United States Government formally on record in favor of an unqualified anti-war treaty between the great powers of the world, Secretary Kellogg said, in an address at New York, that if the principal nations are united in a sincere desire for such a compact, a formula could be devised acceptable to all.

Mr. E. C. Drury, former premier of Ontario, in his series of western articles in the Financial Post, writes about the wheat pool. He finds that the pool has rendered its members a real service but deprecates claims on its behalf that it can influence world prices. Its value, in his judgment, is that the pool markets its members' wheat in such a way that they get a fair average price. While he met net-pool farmers who had marketed their wheat at higher prices than those paid by the pool, he thinks the chart issued by the pool claiming an average of 5 cents a bushel over the average paid for the independent deliveries is an accurate presentation of the facts. "Of course," he adds, it is only fair to say that the pool is much more useful to the small producer who sells his crop as a whole than it is to the larger farmer who sells by car lots and often stores until in his judgment the market is favorable. The latter class may even be able to beat the pool by a substantial margin."

The severe criticism by the Shipping World, London, Eng., of the new Canadian arrangements for the medical inspection of immigrants before they sail for Canada, is noted by the St. John Telegraph-Journal, but it is not greatly improved. Referring to the thirty doctors who were sent over to give intending immigrants a proper examination, it says: "The purpose of the change, as explained by the immigration department, is to avoid the necessity of barring and deporting people after they have crossed the ocean, which involves grave hardship.
The Shipping World insists that the new system of examination need not demand a card of identification and a photograph of the applicant; and represents other irritating and senseless details which will discourage and deter a great many who would otherwise come."

All of which is debatable. A short list of the regulations will provide some useful light as to the merits of such criticism. Parliament, knowing there are two sides to the question of "beat the facts."

There is a touch of genius about Mr. Robb as a maker of budgets in the opinion of the Vancouver Free-Press, an independent journal.

"Either that or the fates are supplying him with a long list of 'Always, whatever his obligations, he appears able to meet them, and able, at the same time, to hand the taxpayer an acceptable gift in the way of tax reduction. May Canada long have budget-makers like Mr. Robb, men who are masters of their art and the friends of fortune."

The Toronto Star remarks that he was a lone in getting into Parliament and a long time in making an impression after he got there. "He was and is a quiet and modest man," says the Star, "though it is said of him that he is a man who played lacrosse with noise as well as vigor.
In Parliament, as previously in Par-leyfield, he was known as a pleasant and successful man, but not as an orator. It was almost a surprise to some when he was chosen for the ministry. Then in a year or two he became acting minister of finance and it began to dawn upon the country that this man was made for that job.
He was and is an unqualified success.
He has won a place in the esteem of the Canadian people and in the confidence of Canadian business men which equals that of any predecessor."
